SOCIAL RESPONSIBLE ACTIVITY

The World day for “Prevention of Child Abuse”

BRIEF NOTE

The prevention of child abuse is associated with numerous benefits that extend to individuals, families, communities, and society at large. Child abuse prevention positively influences academic performance and educational attainment by fostering a supportive and nurturing environment for learning. Child abuse prevention contributes to lowering crime rates by addressing the root causes of criminal behavior that may be linked to childhood abuse and neglect.

Prevention programs often involve empowering parents and caregivers with knowledge and resources to provide a safe and supportive environment for their children .Prevention initiatives raise public awareness about the prevalence and consequences of child abuse, fostering a collective commitment to child protection.

Nearly 100 students and 10 Faculty members involved in this activity
